

NATIVE STUDIES

Native Studies is a social science elective at the 10, 20 and 30 level. Native Studies courses are available at Bishop Murray, E.D. Feehan, Holy Cross, and Joe Duquette High Schools. Please contact the Coordinator: Indian and Métis education for further details about the Native Studies program or to explore course extension.

The following documents are available from the Learning Resource Distribution Centre.

Native Studies 10, A Curriculum Guide for Grade 10, Societal Structures of Indian, Métis and Inuit Peoples (1991).

Native Studies 10, A Bibliography for Grade 10 (1991).

Native Studies 10, Student Resource Guide (1991).

Native Studies 10, Teachers Resource Guide, Societal Structures of Indian, Métis and Inuit Peoples (1991).

Native Studies 20, A Curriculum Guide for Grade 11, International Indigenous Issues (1992).

Native Studies 20, Student Resource Guide (1992).

Native Studies 20, Case Studies and Readings Package (1992).

Native Studies Curricula 10, 20, 30, An Information Bulletin for Administrators (1991). (Revised September 1993).

Canadian Studies 30, Native Studies Curriculum Guide (June, 1997).

Canadian Studies 30, Native Studies Resource Guide (September, 1997).

Trish Lafontaine, Native Studies Consultant (306-787-5987), is available through Saskatchewan Education's Aboriginal Education Unit to advise on Native Studies related concerns.

