New mission statement to be unveiled to Catholic school staff at Opening Day Celebration

More than 1500 staff members from Greater Saskatoon Catholic Schools will gather Friday to launch their school year.

The day begins with Mass, celebrated by Bishop Albert LeGatt, followed by keynote addresses to staff by division leadership.

Board Chair Diane Boyko will unveil the division's new mission statement, which was created after a year of consultation with students, staff, parents and the wider community. Boyko will also present the leaders of each school and workplace with a keepsake commemorating the new mission statement.

Following Boyko's speech, Director of Education Bev Hanson will speak to staff about the key elements of the mission statement and its role in the everyday work at their schools and workplaces.

Media are invited to attend any part of the morning. Details are as follows:
